SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER (DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY) 24th April 2022

The Living One—We worship Christ who was dead and is now alive for ever and ever. He is present in our midst, bringing healing and peace.

FIRST READING: Acts 5:12—16
RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,
his love is everlasting
SECOND READING: Apo 1:9—13, 17—19
GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, alleluia!
You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me; happy those who have not seen me,
But still believe! Alleluia!
GOSPEL: Jn 20:19—31

NEXT WEEK'S READING:

Third Sunday of Easter—Year C

Parish Notices

New Alpha Course—We are still in urgent need of seeking Alpha graduates to run an Alpha course so that we are able to continue our baptism preparation. At St Peter's, Alpha is prerequisite to enrol for the Sacrament of Baptism. Please contact the parish office if you are interested in assisting to facilitate this course.

Project Compassion Boxes—The boxes can be returned and placed in the larger box under the statue of St Peter. Many thanks for your generosity towards the great mission of the Church to help those in need. Should you need a tax deductible receipt, please complete the form on the top lip of the box by printing clearly. Please return these by 8th May 2022.

Holy Water Bottles from the Easter Vigil 2022—These are available for a gold coin donation in the narthex of the Church.

Holy Hour—Next Sunday, 1st May at 6:00pm in the Church. Come and spend some time with the Lord as we continue the solemn season of Easter and share in fellowship afterwards.

A photograph of three women, likely healthcare workers, standing outdoors. They are all wearing face masks and making heart gestures with their hands. The woman on the left has blonde hair and is wearing a blue jacket and sunglasses. The woman in the middle has dark hair and is wearing a white top with red sleeves. The woman on the right has dark hair and is wearing a red jacket. They are standing in front of a brick building and trees.

A chance to say thanks

As we emerge from COVID and reflect on the experiences of the past two years, Archbishop Peter A Comensoli invites the community to come together in gratitude to all those who have cared for us during this time.

MASS OF THANKSGIVING FOR HEALTH & AGED CARE WORKERS

Sunday 1 May, 11am
St Patrick's Cathedral

The last two years have impacted all of us, but especially members of the aged and healthcare service sectors. This Mass will be offered in thanksgiving for their ongoing care, and to focus prayerfully on the contributions and the needs of aged and healthcare workers in the Archdiocese of Melbourne.

CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF MELBOURNE

'He will wipe away all tears from their eyes; death will be no more, and sadness and crying and pain will be no more. The first things have passed away.'

REVELATION 21:4

Remembering those we have lost

As we emerge from COVID and reflect on the experiences of the past two years, Archbishop Peter A Comensoli invites the community to come together to remember all those we have lost during this time.

MASS TO COMMEMORATE THOSE WHO HAVE DIED DURING THE COVID PANDEMIC

Sunday 22 May, 11am
St Patrick's Cathedral

In recognition of the significant impact of COVID in our families and communities, Archbishop Comensoli will celebrate a memorial Mass for all those who have died during the COVID pandemic and could not be mourned properly due to pandemic restrictions.

Parishes and individuals are invited to submit the name(s) of those you would like remembered during this Mass by visiting the Holy Souls Chapel at St Patrick's Cathedral or submitting the names online. The names will be placed in a basket at the base of the altar, to be prayed for during all Masses over the weekend of 21-22 May.
