Divine Mercy Sunday Next Week

Divine Mercy Sunday, as declared by Pope Saint John Paul II on 30th April 2000 is a day when the Divine Floodgates from Heaven are wide-opened and Jesus offers us the total forgiveness of all sins and punishment to any soul, who goes to Confession and receives Him in Holy Communion, on that day. In one of the most extraordinary homilies of his Pontificate, Pope Saint John Paul II repeated three times that Saint Faustina is "God's gift to our time." She made the message of Divine Mercy the "bridge to the third millennium." He then said, "By this act of canonisation of Saint Faustina I intend today to pass this message on to the third millennium. I pass it on to all people, so that they will learn to know ever better the true face of God and the true face of their neighbour. In fact, love God and love of one's neighbour are inseparable." Why not pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet each day for the Easter Octave. Copies of the Divine Mercy Novena are available in the Narthex for your devotional prayer and meditation.
